Acts 2:1-11 (Epistle)

When the Day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and one sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. And there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven. And when this sound occurred, the multitude came together, and were confused, because everyone heard them speak in his own language. Then they were all amazed and marveled, saying to one another, "Look, are not all these who speak Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each in our own language in which we were born? Parthians and Medes and Elamites, those dwelling in Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya adjoining Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs – we hear them speaking in our own tongues the wonderful works of God."

John 7:37-52, 8:12 (Gospel)

On the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water." But this He spoke concerning the Spirit, whom those believing in Him would receive; for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. Therefore many from the crowd, when they heard this saying, said, "Truly this is the Prophet." Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "Will the Christ come out of Galilee? Has not the Scripture said that the Christ comes from the seed of David and from the town of Bethlehem, where David was?" So there was a division among the people because of Him. Now some of them wanted to take Him, but no one laid hands on Him. Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, "Why have you not brought Him?" The officers answered, "No man ever spoke like this Man!" Then the Pharisees answered them, "Are you also deceived? Have any of the rulers or the Pharisees believed in Him? But this crowd that does not know the law is accursed." Nicodemus (he who came to Jesus by night, being one of them) said to them, "Does our law judge a man before it hears him and knows what he is doing?" They answered and said to him, "Are you also from Galilee? Search and look, for no prophet has arisen out of Galilee." Then Jesus spoke to them again, saying, "I am the light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the light of life."

A SALUTE TO OUR GRADUATES

Whether it's a high school graduation, a national diploma, a bachelor degree or a master degree, all of this requires hard work and being diligent. Your hard work and sleepless night have eventually paid off and it's now your graduation.

Saying congratulations to someone means you are really proud of their success and you are truly happy for them, they have really worked hard to be where they are today, their sleepless nights and their hard work hasn't been in vain. It's only right to send our prayers and congratulations to our parish family graduates for a work well done.

Congratulations and may God grant you Many Years!

CEMETERY BLESSING: Dear brothers and sisters in Christ – Christ is Risen! As is a tradition in our parish, we will be going to our parish cemetery on Pentecost Sunday, TODAY @ 1:00 pm, weather permitting, to bless the cemetery, individual graves of our departed loved ones and to serve a General Panikhida with the reading of all the names of our parishioners who have fallen asleep in the Lord.

ARCHPASTORAL VISIT OF ARCHBISHOP MICHAEL – On Saturday, June 22 for Vespers and Sunday, June 23 for the Divine Liturgy (that will begin at 9:15 am) His Eminence will be with us for his annual visit. Please make every effort to come and enjoy fellowship with each other and our archpastor!

AN INVITATION TO OKSANA KARLGUT GRADUATION PARTY – On Sunday, June 23rd all of our parishioners and friends are invited to Oksana's Graduation party immediately after the Divine Liturgy, celebrated by Archbishop Michael. There will be NO coffee hour that Sunday, but the multitude of festal foods will be served under the tent outside. Fr. Alexey and Matushka Anastasia heartily invite our entire parish family to share in this event with each other, Oksana and Archbishop Michael!

On Sunday, June 23rd, during Archbishop Michael's Visit and Oksana Karlgut Graduation Party, Stella Holowatch will be recognized by presentation of Gramota at the Divine Liturgy, as well as Fr. Timm Holowatch will receive an award of Palitza. YOU'RE INVITED TO SHARE IN CELEBRATION OF ALL THOSE SPECIAL EVENTS! Your attendance at the Liturgy and Party immediately after, will be Greatly Appreciated!

to all our visitors and guests who participate in our celebration of the Divine Liturgy! While Holy Communion may only be received by prepared Orthodox Christians, our non-Orthodox guests are welcome to join us in venerating the Cross & receiving blessed bread at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy. We invite all of our guests to join us for our Fellowship Hour & to visit our Bookstore.
